LC GENRE/FORM TERMS FOR RELIGIOUS MATERIALS PROJECT

Janis Young at LC reports that the religion genre/form terms document submitted in August 2012 is still under review. Staff changes at LC have made it impossible to adhere to the planned schedule. She has begun to gather some notes and suggestions. Project participants will be notified when they are ready for our review.

TRAINING PRESENTATIONS, WEBCASTS, AND WEBINARS

RDA WEBINARS:

Managing E-Resources Cataloging: Impact and Insight, August 21, 2013. In this webinar, we are going to focus on managing the cataloging activities for all types of e-resources a typical academic/research library will acquire, which will be divided into two different workflow namely cataloging and loading. We will cover aspects including the collaboration with other units in the library especially the Acquisition's E-resources group and collection managers, how to motivate staff, what tools can help, and most important, how to prepare oneself to be a good manager for e-resources cataloging. <http://www.ala.org/alcts/confevents/upcoming/webinar/082113>

AACR2...Meet RDA

Webinar provided by MCLS

Cataloging with RDA (Resource Description & Access) is similar to cataloging with AACR2...and then again it's not! In this 2-hour webinar, key differences between AACR2 and RDA will be identified and shown through examples. Some of the challenges and implications of these differences will be discussed, and possible solutions suggested.
