

“Coconut Drive”

This is my first painting. I decided on this scene because it reminded me of my childhood visiting Mayaro, Trinidad. The swaying coconut trees and hills remind me that my childhood is only an ocean away.

Pooran Bridgelal was born and raised in Trinidad and now lives here in Toronto with his wife Judy and their son Levi. He’s currently finishing his degree at the University of Toronto.

He is an avid collector of rare books and maps.
