

Tammy Ronique Williams

Born in Moscow Russia and raised in Kingston Jamaica, Tammy Ronique Williams is a third year student at the University of Toronto. She is pursuing an Honours Bachelor's Degree in English and Caribbean Studies, with a minor in Russian. She is an avid photographer.

- Top Left – Right
- “Horse and Buggy Rest”
(Varadero, Cuba)
- “Fisher boats by the seashore”
(Westmoreland, Jamaica)
- “Abuela” (Havana, Cuba)
- “Viva Cuba!” (Havana, Cuba)
- “Han’ Cyaat Man”
(Savanna-La-Mar, Westmoreland, Jamaica.)*
- “Breadfruit Stand”
(Bluefields, Westmoreland Jamaica)
- “Cine Payret” (Havana, Cuba)

* The resilience of a nation is often evidenced in the face of its blue-collared people. The shoemaker, the street sweeper, the cane cutter, the hand cart man.