

Techniques of Special Collections

A PRECONFERENCE OF THE
RARE BOOKS SECTION
ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGE AND RESEARCH LIBRARIES
A DIVISION OF THE
AMERICAN LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

Place: Stanford University, Stanford, California

Dates: June 22-24, 1967

Program:

Thursday, June 22

- 2:00 p.m. Registration
Exhibition, Bender Room, Stanford University
- 6:00 p.m. Reception and dinner

Friday, June 23

- 10:00 a.m. "Methods of disposing of duplicate and unwanted material"
—panel discussion
- 12:30 p.m. Luncheon. Speaker to be announced
- 2:00 p.m. Exhibition techniques—panel discussion
- 6:30 p.m. Reception and dinner
Speaker: Richard Dillon, Librarian, Sutro Library, San Francisco

Saturday, June 24

- 9:30 a.m. "Valuation and appraisal"—panel discussion.
- 12:00 noon Luncheon
- 1:30 p.m. Buses to San Francisco
- 2:00 p.m. Tour of San Francisco libraries
- 6:00 p.m. Reception

Rooms will be available in the dormitories of Stanford University for the nights of June 22 and 23. The conference fee will be announced in a future issue of "CRL News" and will include registration fee and meals. Registration will be limited.

Additional information and registration forms will be available from the ACRL Executive Secretary, 50 E. Huron Street, Chicago 60611, after April 1. A mailing will be made to all members of the Rare Books Section at that time and will include registration forms.