Profiles

JOHN W. BERRY, systems development librarian at Northern Illinois University, has been appointed executive director of ALA's Library Administration and Management Association, effective April 1. He succeeds Roger Parent, who recently was named deputy executive director of the American Library Association.

John W. Berry

Berry has been at NIU since 1980 with his appointment as reference librarian, later becoming acting assistant director for public services in 1983 and systems development librarian in 1984. Prior to that he served as public services coordinator at Elmira College from 1974 to 1980, and head of Microforms Services at Indiana University from 1973 to 1974.

A side interest in photography has allowed Berry to teach fine art photography and history of photography courses at Elmira College, and to lecture to art classes at Northern Illinois. He holds a bachelor's degree in political science (1969), a master's in social studies (1971), and an MLS (1974) from Indiana University.

A member of ALA's Committee on Organization since 1984, Berry has also served as chair of the LAMA Subcommittee on JMRT (Junior Members Round Table) Relations and the Subcommittee on the LAMA Booth. He has been an ACRL member since 1974.

EDWARD D. GARTEN has been appointed director of university libraries at the University of Dayton, effective July 1, 1985.

Since 1980 Garten has been director of libraries at Tennessee Tech University; prior to that he was director of the Library and Learning Resources Center at Northern State College, Aberdeen, South Dakota.

Edward D. Garten

Garten holds a Ph.D. in higher education administration from the University of Toledo, an MLS from Kent State University, and master's degrees from the Methodist Theological School. He has done post-doctoral study in Great Britain and the Soviet Union.

A member of the Board of Directors of ALA's Library Administration and Management Association, Garten also serves as editor of the LAMA Newsletter. He has done editorial work with Library Hi Tech and serves on the Editorial Board of Personnel Administrator. He is credentialed as a personnel specialist by the American Society for Personnel Administration and has been engaged in a wide range of consulting activities in the personnel and human relations fields.

From 1983 to 1984 he served as chair of the State Board of Regents (Tennessee) Library Directors' Council and in June will complete a term as chair of the State Board of Regents Media Advisory Council.

FID calls for papers

"Information, Communications and Technology Transfer" will be the theme of the 43d Conference and Congress of the International Federation for Documentation (FID) in Montreal, Quebec, September 14-18, 1986. Proposed topics include new techniques for information handling and information transfer, advances in communications systems, advances in computer systems, electronic publishing, electronic document delivery systems, and all aspects of technology transfer.

The conference languages will be English and French; original papers in either language are requested. Authors are asked to submit six copies of a summary of their proposed paper to the conference chair by June 30, 1985: Mr. E.V. Smith, Director, CISTI, National Research Council of Canada, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada K1A 0S2.

IMOGENE I. BOOK has been named director of the Learning Resource Center at Denmark Technical College, South Carolina. She came to Denmark from Rend Lake College, Ina, Illinois, where she served as librarian.

Book recently completed a four-year term as a member of the ACRL Board of Directors. She has also served as chair of ACRL's Community and Junior College Libraries Section, past president of the Illinois Association of College and Research Libraries, and secretary of the Illinois Association of School Librarians.

Imogene Book

Book is currently chair of the CJCLS Planning and Procedures Committee and serves on the CJCLS Membership/Communications Committee.

Book holds an MLS and a certificate of advanced study in librarianship from the University of Illinois and a bachelor's degree in education from Southern Illinois University. She is currently a doctoral student in educational media at Southern Illinois University.

JERRY WAYNE STEPHENS has been named librarian and director of the Mervyn Stone Library at the University of Alabama, Birmingham. He was previously assistant director for administrative services, assistant to the director, and accountant at UAB.

Jerry Wayne Stephens

Stephens holds an MLS and a doctorate in administration and higher education from the University of Alabama in Tuscaloosa, and a master's degree in business administration and a bachelor of science degree from Birmingham. He has also been a part-time member of the School of Business faculty at UAB, and has served on a variety of committees and task forces in the University College.

LEROY STROHL has been appointed librarian of Mary Washington College, Fredericksburg, Virginia.

He comes to this position from Emory and Henry College where he has served as head librarian since 1974. Prior to that he was technical services librarian at Roger Williams College (1972-1974) and acquisitions assistant at Kentucky State University (1970-1972). He holds an MLS and a master's degree in English literature from the University of Kentucky and a bachelor's degree from Hanover College.

LeRoy Strohl

Strohl has chaired several sections in the Virginia Library Association, including its College and University Section, an ACRL chapter.

People in the news

CHARLES H. DAVIS, dean of the University of Illinois Graduate School of Library and Information Science, will step down from that position to return to teaching and research, effective August 21, 1985.

Davis was appointed dean in 1979, succeeding Herbert Goldhor, who bore the title of director. He holds three degrees from Indiana University, a bachelor's in chemistry and physics, as well as an MLS and a doctorate in library and information science. He has also studied toxicology at Indiana and chemistry at the University of Munich, West Germany.

Charles H. Davis

Before coming to Illinois, Davis was dean of the Faculty of Library Science at the University of Alberta. He also served on the faculty of Indiana and Drexel Universities and University of Michigan.

The author of several books on information retrieval and programming, Davis served as president of the American Society for Information Science in 1982-1983 and currently is a consultant to the National Science Council of Taiwan. In 1982 he received the Louise Maxwell Award given by the alumni association of the Indiana University School of Library and Information Science.
