ACRL seeks Editor for RBML Rare Books & Manuscripts Librarianship

The Association of College and Research Libraries (ACRL) is seeking an editor for the rare books journal Rare Books & Manuscripts Librarianship (RBML). The RBML editor is responsible for the editorial content of the journal and is assisted by an editorial board, primarily in refereeing submissions. The editor, who is the chair of the RBML Editorial Board, receives submissions and sends them out to board members for their review. The position of editor of RBML is voluntary. The editor is appointed for a three-year term and may serve a maximum of three such terms. The editor recommends to the ACRL Publications Committee for their approval who shall be on the journal's editorial board and also who shall be book review editor. Production of the journal is handled by the production manager at ACRL Publications in Chicago, with whom the RBML editor works closely.

Appointment will be made by the ACRL Board of Directors at the 1998 ALA Annual Meeting.
