

PUBLICATIONS

NOTICES

• Arab Oil: A Bibliography of Materials in the Library of Congress, compiled by George Dimitri Selim (203 pages, 1983), is now available from the Library of Congress. The book brings together references to Arab oil in articles, books, dissertations, maps, papers, periodicals, reports, and audiovisual materials, all in Western languages that use the Roman alphabet. Supplementing the bibliography is a list of abbreviations, a name index, and title and subject indexes. Copies may be ordered for $7.50 from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, DC 20402 (Stock number 030-000-00143-5).

• Cataloging Titles in Microform Sets is based on the report of a 1980 study, conducted for ARL by Information Systems Consultants, Inc., which led to the establishment of the ARL Microform Project. The monograph provides a chronology of the study, focusing on the most important issues that were addressed in each of the study's four phases. Copies may be ordered for $12 (ARL members, $8) from the Association of Research Libraries, 1527 New Hampshire Ave., N.W., Washington, DC 20036.

• Central Serials Record (85 fiche, 42x reduction) is the ninth microfiche edition of the University of Washington's serial holdings current as of February 1983. The cost is $25 and, since there may be two or three editions yearly, standing orders are accepted. Contact: Lynne Rhoads, Library Publications Officer, University of Washington Libraries FM-25, Seattle, WA 98195.

• The Charles Coffin Collection at Tusculum College: The Original Library of Greeneville College 1794-1827 has been published by Tusculum College under an NEH grant. This COM catalog contains descriptive cataloging for a collection of 1,656 volumes which comprised the original library of the oldest chartered college west of the Alleghenies. Tusculum, founded as Greeneville College in 1794, is the only post-Revolutionary frontier college to retain its original library substantially intact. The catalog is available for $20 from Special Collections, Tusculum College Library, Greeneville, TN 37743.

• The Continental Army, by Robert K. Wright, Jr. (451 pages, April 1983), is the third recent volume on specialized aspects of the War of American Independence published by the U.S. Army Center of Military History. This work explores in detail how the regular troops were organized and where they fought, and emphasizes the interplay of political, economic, and military influences on the evolution of one of the nation's major institutions. Copies may be ordered for $15 from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, DC 20402 (Stock number 0829-00122-5).

• The DEAKDEX, a computerized index to 13,000 items in the W. A. Deacon MS Collection at the Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library, University of Toronto, has been compiled by Michele Lacombe, John Lennox, and Clara Thomas of the York University Department of English. The DEAKDEX consists of a subject, author, date, and subject listing for letters to and from William Arthur Deacon (1890-1977), literary critic, and his hundreds of correspondents, including prominent Canadian writers. It includes a user's guide and is available on microfiche for $15 for libraries and $20 for individuals. For information, contact J.W. Lennox, 314 Founders College, York University, 4700 Keele St., Downsview, Ontario, Canada, M3J 1P2.

• The Directory of Faculty Contracts and Bargaining Agents in Institutions of Higher Education, by Joel M. Douglas and Carol Rosenberg (75 pages, 9th volume, January 1983), has been published by the National Center for the Study of Collective Bargaining in Higher Education and the Professions. An introduction summarizes unionization among faculty in 1982. Copies may be purchased for $12 from the Center, Baruch College, City University of New York, 17 Lexington Ave., Box 322, New York, NY 10010.

• The Future of Libraries (43 pages, 1982), papers from the SUNY-Albany University Libraries' Millionth Volume Celebration, September 24, 1982, represent a panel discussion by librarians, administrators, faculty, and students, on the future of research libraries from varying viewpoints. North American libraries may receive a free copy by sending a 37¢ self-addressed 8x11-inch envelope to: Anne Roberts, Communications Projects Librarian, University Libraries, SUNY-Albany, 1400 Washington Ave., Albany, NY 12222.

• A Guide to Drug Information and Literature: An Annotated Bibliography (2d ed., 1983) has been

SERVING THE OLDER ADULT

A Guide to Library Programs and Information Sources

By Betty J. Turock. The rise of the aging population in this country means that services and information for the older adult are increasingly important. This is the first book to offer a comprehensive overview of the information needs of older adults, and of how librarians and allied professionals can meet these needs. A volume in Bowker's Serving Special Populations Series. ISBN 0-8352-1487-7 277 pp. January 1983 $29.95

WOMEN RELIGIOUS HISTORY SOURCES

A Guide to Repositories in the United States

Edited by Sister Evangeline Thomas, with the assistance of Joyce L. White and Lois Wachtel. This guide to the archival and manuscript repositories of Catholic, Episcopal and Orthodox sisterhoods and Lutheran, Mennonite and Methodist deaconesses is the result of a four-year national survey funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities and the National Historical Publications and Records Commission. The guide is arranged alphabetically by state with alphabetical sublistings by city and congregation/community name. ISBN 0-8352-1681-0 329 pp. March 1983 $65.00

RELIGIOUS BOOKS 1876-1982

This sourcebook provides comprehensive access to every title pertaining to any area of religion and the related areas of philosophy published or distributed in the United States from the inception of Library of Congress cataloging to the present. More than 130,000 titles are classified under some 29,000 Library of Congress subject headings in the Main Index, with each title receiving a fully cataloged entry. ISBN 0-8352-1602-0 4,700 pp. June 1983 $195.00 the 4-vo! set

PUBLISHERS WEEKLY YEARBOOK

News, Analyses and Trends in the Book Industry; First Edition 1983

A blend of statistics, reports from the field, summaries of major events, and interpretive essays, all of which are original to this volume. Here are statistics covering every aspect of the book business, reports on the climate for sales, articles covering everything from mergers to electronic publishing—with in-depth coverage only industry insiders can provide. Compiled and edited by the staff of PUBLISHERS WEEKLY in collaboration with the Book Division R.R. Bowker. ISBN 0-8352-1689-6 Approx 300 pp. May 1983 $39.95/hardcover ISBN 0-8352-1691-8 $29.95/paperback

Special offer! 20% off through June 15, 1983

BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS BOOKS 1876-1982

Offering a comprehensive, retrospective coverage for the first time, this volume provides access to the entire literature of business and economics. More than 150,000 titles are listed under some 50,000 Library of Congress subject headings in the main Subject Index—with coverage extending from the inception of Library of Congress cataloging to the present. ISBN 0-8352-1614-4 5,245 pp. August 1983 $195.00 the 4-vo! set

Bowker— updating standard references and offering coverage of vital new areas for library professionals.

THE BOWKER ANNUAL OF LIBRARY AND BOOK TRADE INFORMATION 1983 28th Edition

Compiled and edited by Joanne O'Hare. Consulting editor, Frank L. Schick. Sponsored by the Council of National Library and Information Associations, Inc. Find out how recent federal legislation affects library funding and book buying, discover how libraries are using new technology, keep abreast of trends in publishing and the information industries, determine the estimated dollar size of the library market by segment, predict next year's spending and buying trends, and much more with this annual containing feature articles, surveys, tables, charts, statistics, names, addresses, and news stories by experts in the field. ISBN 0-8352-1680-2 704 pp. May 1983 $55.00

BIOGRAPHICAL BOOKS 1876-1949

This unprecedented bibliography captures in a single source virtually every biography, autobiography, collective biography, journal, diary, letter collection, biographical dictionary and directory published or distributed in the United States since the inception of Library of Congress cataloging to 1949. More than 39,000 titles are classified under some 15,000 personal name headings and 8,000 LC subject headings in the Main Index, while a separate Vocation Index provides access to some 10,000 personal names. ISBN 0-8352-1603-9 Approx 1,824 pp. May 1983 $110.00

LIBRARY AUTOMATION: Issues and Applications

By Dennis Reynolds. Emphasizing planning, buying, installing, and maintaining cost-efficient automation, this volume is essential for understanding the place of automation in today's library, for making the correct hardware and software purchasing decisions, and for making the most of automated systems by proper training and management. ISBN 0-8352-1489-3 Approx 304 pp. September 1983 $35.00

THE PRINTWORLD DIRECTORY OF CONTEMPORARY PRINTS AND PRICES 1983/84

Edited by Selma Smith. Published by Printworld Inc., and distributed exclusively to libraries, bookstores, and academics by R.R. Bowker. The unique, up-to-date volume lists more than 10,000 valuable prints by 825 established and new artists (200 more artists than the previous edition). Artists' entries list biographical facts, including current mailing address. Prints are listed with information on where to order them, when they were printed, their color, size, number printed, and original and current prices. ISBN 0-943606-01-2 Approx 450 pp. April 1983 $49.95/paper

WHO WAS WHO ON SCREEN Third Edition

Compiled by Evelyn Mack Trutt. This biographical directory is a collection of over 1,000,000 facts on 13,000 film personalities who died between the years 1905 and 1981. Each of the entries—not just film stars, but character actors, animals, stuntmen, screenwriters, set designers, etc. who have at least one American film credit—gives a clear, readable biography including positions held within the movie industry, awards, and a year-by-year list of all screen credits. The third edition includes approximately 4,000 additional entries not listed in the second edition. ISBN 0-8352-1578-4 800 pp. March 1983 $65.00

R.R. Bowker Company

Order Dept., P.O. Box 1807, Ann Arbor, MI 48106
or call our Toll Free number: 1-800-521-8110

prepared for use in library orientation programs for medical and pharmacy students. Annotations describe the scope, arrangement, content, and use of each source. Copies may be ordered (prepaid only) for $8 from the Norris Medical Library, Reference Secretary, University of Southern California, 2025 Zonal Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90033.

• A Guide to Pacific Northwest Native American Materials in the Melville Jacobs Collection and in Other Archival Collections in the University of Washington Libraries (113 pages, 1983) includes many unique materials, among them Native American-related sound recordings and linguistic and ethnographic field notes. A related monograph, Explorers' and Early Travellers' Journals Documenting Early Contacts with Native Americans in the Pacific Northwest, 1741-1900 (101 pages, 1983) has also been published by the University Libraries. The more than 680 citations are to the earliest imprints of works in the Pacific Northwest Collection which display significant ethnographic information. Each publication is $5 and may be ordered from the Library Publications Officer, University of Washington Libraries FM-25, Seattle, WA 98195.

• Interlibrary Loan in ARL Libraries, SPEC Kit #92 (March 1983, 98 pages), examines the variety of ways that university libraries operate their interlibrary loan office. The kit includes survey results, 11 policy and procedure documents, four examples of user materials, seven documents on cooperative agreements and network services, and a short bibliography. Single copies may be purchased for $15, with checks made payable to the ARL Office of Management Studies, from the SPEC Center, ARL/OMS, 1527 New Hampshire Ave., N.W., Washington, DC 20036.

• Legal Looseleaves in Print 1983, by Arlene L. Stern (289 pages, 3d ed., 1983), lists over 2,100 looseleaf titles by 200 publishers with a detailed subject index and a directory of publishers. For each looseleaf the following information is provided: author, publisher, date of publication, number of volumes, price, frequency, cost of supplementation, and L.C number. Copies may be ordered for $25 (plus $2 shipping) from Infosources Publishing, 118 W. 79th St., New York, NY 10024.

• The third annual edition of the Library Education Statistical Report (1982) is a comprehensive collection of statistical information about 81 graduate library education programs in the United States and Canada. The report consists of five sections: faculty, students, curriculum, income and expenditures, and continuing education. Copies of this and previous editions of the report are available for $15 each from Executive Headquarters, Association of American Library Schools, 471 Park Lane, State College, PA 16801.

It's Time To Try A New ROUTE.

Introducing ROUTE. The Newest Module In Faxon's LINX System.

Now there's a computerized system for creating, updating and printing journal routing slips. The ROUTE system.

With ROUTE, all the time-consuming details of managing routing lists are taken care of for you. ROUTE keeps track of who gets what publications. It lists readers by name, location, address and other identifiers you specify. It can prioritize routing order by title or other parameters, and it produces all your routing slips for you.

Show Me The ROUTE.

I'm looking for a way to manage periodical distribution more efficiently. Send me all the facts on your ROUTE system right away.

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

CITY _____

STATE _____ ZIP _____

fax-on

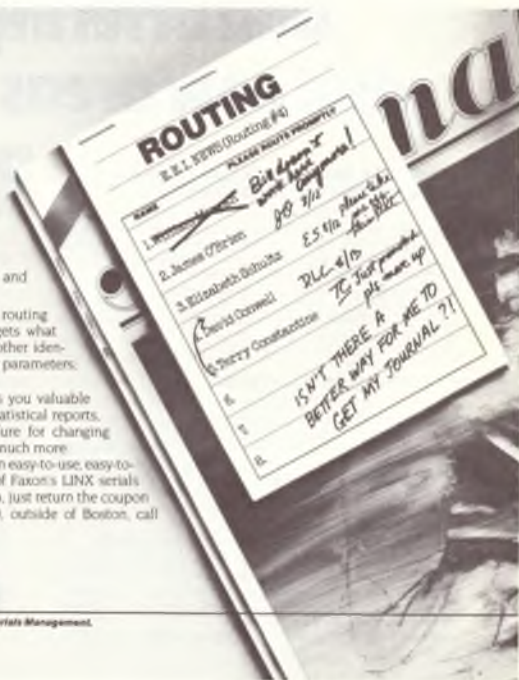

17 Southward Park, Westwood, WA 20090

ROUTE also gives you valuable management and statistical reports, a simplified procedure for changing reader records, and much more.

For the full story on easy-to-use, easy-to-learn ROUTE, part of Faxon's LINX serials management system, just return the coupon or call 617-329-3350, outside of Boston, call 800-225-6055.

fax-on

The Art and Science of Serials Management.

•The Louisiana Union Catalog (3d microfiche ed., Louisiana Library Association, 1983) provides an author, title, and subject index to items about Louisiana, set in Louisiana or by Louisiana authors, which have been submitted by libraries in and outside the state through 1982. The index is on 42x microfiche, and is supplemented by Advance Sheets, a hardcopy bimonthly publication. An annual subscription to the Advance Sheets is $30; a combined order for the 1983-84 volumes and the microfiche catalog may be purchased for $125. Order from the Louisiana Union Catalog Committee, P.O. Box 3276, Baton Rouge, LA 70821.

•The Manual for Accessioning, Arrangement, and Description of Manuscripts and Archives (98 pages, 2d ed., 1982) demonstrates how to transfer arrangement controls into an integrated descriptive program. It presents a system of intellectual control based on the principle of provenance and the concept of establishing progressively refined controls by record levels on an accession-by-accession basis. This second edition includes new sections on principles of inventory construction and preparation and is issued in looseleaf format. The manual costs $10 and may be ordered from the Library Publications Officer, University of Washington Libraries FM-25, Seattle, WA 98195.

•Microtexts in Cornell University Libraries, by Joan Smith (173 pages, 1982), describes important and little-known collections held in microfilm, microfiche, microcard, and microprint, and lists and annotates such user aids as indexes and bibliographies. Especially noteworthy is a comprehensive guide to the hard-to-use U.S. Joint Publications Research Service (JPRS) Translations and Reports. Copies may be purchased for $12 from the Publications Committee, 015 Olin Library, Cornell University, Ithaca, NY 14853.

•MULS: A Union List of Serials (3d rev. ed., 1982) includes a half million holding locations for serials held in libraries in Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Wisconsin. Microfiche copies are available for $150 from MINITEX, 30 Wilson Library, 309 19th Avenue S., University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, MN 55455.

•New Directions in Library and Information Science Education is a monthly newsletter published by King Research, Inc., dedicated to a project that seeks to determine the present and future competencies needed by library and information science professionals and to examine the educational requirements for achieving these competencies. The first issue (March 1983) covers the objectives of the 18-month federally-funded project, its current status, questions it will address, upcoming activities, and an invitation for readers to participate. Copies are available through King Research, Inc., 6000 Executive Blvd., Rockville, MD 20852.

•The 1983 New England Chapter Directory of members of the Antiquarian Booksellers Association of America is now available. A free copy may be requested (with SASE) from the New England

ABAA, P.O. Box 2286, Framingham, MA 01701.

•Student Assistants in ARL Libraries, SPEC Kit #91 (February 1983, 98 pages), points to a number of trends and issues that are currently surfacing regarding the training and use of student employees. The flyer suggests that changes in library operations and technology require careful evaluation of student tasks. The kit contains three examples of procedures and policies, three recruitment and hiring documents, two job description and classifications examples, four samples of orientation and training, and three documents on performance appraisal and grievance. Single copies may be purchased for $15, with checks made payable to the ARL Office of Management Studies, from the SPEC Center, ARL/OMS, 1527 New Hampshire Ave., N.W., Washington, DC 20036.

•A Study of the Continuing Education Needs of Alberta Library/Information Personnel contains the results of a survey conducted by Library and Information Consultants, Ltd., in 1982 for the Library Association of Alberta. The survey methodology may be useful to other library associations that wish to undertake a similar study. Copies are available for $5 from Laurie Moffat, Chairman, LAA Continuing Education Committee, 3d Floor Cameron Library, University of Alberta, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada T6G 2J8.

•Tornados, Dark Days, Anomalous Precipitation, and Related Weather Phenomena, by William R. Corliss (196 pages, 1983) is a bibliography and catalog of unusual meteorological phenomena that have been reported in scientific and technical literature. Nine general categories of event are described, evaluated, and indexed by subject, time-of-event, place-of-event, author, and source. Copies may be ordered for $11.95 from The Sourcebook Project, P.O. Box 107, Glen Arm, MD 21057.

•Tarleton Cooks: A Collection of Recipes for Fine Dining and Entertaining from Tarlton Law Library will be the title of a commemorative cookbook being compiled and edited by the library at the University of Texas School of Law. Recipe contributions are being made by Tarlton employees past and present. Any Tarlton alumni with recipes to offer may send them to Cookbook, Tarlton Law Library, 727 East 26th St., Austin, TX 78705. The cookbook will also include a bibliography of other cookbooks and recipe collections compiled and produced by legal groups throughout the world. ■■

