NOTICE

Respondents to advertisers offering faculty "rank" and "status" are advised that these terms are ambiguous and should inquire as to benefits involved.

All advertisements for the "Positions Wanted" and the "Positions Open" classifications will be edited to exclude direct or indirect references to race, creed, color, age, and sex as conditions of employment. The American Library Association requires a salary range for all "Positions Open."

Classified advertising orders and copy, and cancellations, should be addressed to the Association of College and Research Libraries, American Library Association, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611, and should reach that office before the second of the month preceding publication of issue desired. Copy received after that time may be held for the next issue. To insure that readers have sufficient lead time to respond to "Positions Open," advertisers must list closing dates no sooner than the end of the month of publication.

Telephone orders for classified advertising, while not encouraged because of the increased risk of copy error, will be accepted. Calls should be directed to the ACRL office at (312) 944-6780. A confirming order should be mailed to ACRL as soon as possible following the call, along with typewritten copy to be used in proofreading the ad.

Rate for classified advertising is $1.80 per printed line to ACRL members, $2.25 per printed line to non-ACRL members. Individuals who advertise on behalf of organizations will be charged according to the organization's membership status.

On its first publication in 1967, Anglo-American Cataloguing Rules was greeted as "the best Code we have, or are likely to have," and was soon adopted by libraries around the world.

The second edition of AACR consolidates the achievements of the first and builds on them to meet the challenges of development and change. In an intensive three-year project, two distinguished editors and an international Joint Steering Committee—on which the national library associations and national library services of the United States, Canada, and the United Kingdom were all represented—have produced a revision that harmonizes the two differing texts of the first edition. AACR 2 incorporates the latest international standards, makes provision for the whole range of new materials and media now in our library collections, and takes notice of the impact of machine-readable cataloguing and bibliographic systems. There are adjustments to the text and presentation that nation-wide reviews by AACR users have shown to be essential.

One innovation is of particular importance: the rules for Description are presented in an integrated structure that provides a uniform basis for recording not only every known category of print and nonprint material, but those still unknown and uninvented.

AACR 2 can be the Code to take cataloguing into the twenty-first century. Order your copies now!
