

• The library of the STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK at Buffalo commemorated the acquisition of its two millionth volume on September 17. The book, Rerum Polonicarum, was written in 1584 by Alexandro Guagnino, a knighted Polish soldier turned author. The program featured keynote speaker Oscar Handlin, director of the University Library at Harvard, a panel discussion on "The Book Collector, Rare Book Collection, and the University Library," and a formal opening of the Rare/Special Materials Collection of the Law Library.

• The UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, IRVINE library

hosted a colloquium on academic libraries on October 21 to mark the addition of its millionth volume, the Latin treatise De Nuptiis Philologiae et Mercurii by Martianus Capella in its first printed edition (Vicenza, 1499). The colloquium featured speakers Millicent D. Abell, university librarian at the University of California, San Diego; Richard M. Daugherty, director of the University of Michigan Library; and Stuart Forth, dean of university libraries at Pennsylvania State University. The colloquium was followed by an evening ceremony featuring historian and educator Arthur M. Schlesinger, Jr. ■■

PROFILES

ROBERT H. PATTERSON has been named director of libraries at the University of Tulsa's McFarlin Library, effective September 1. Before coming to Tulsa, Patterson was director of the University of Wyoming Library from 1976. He also served as assistant director for collection development at Tulane University Library (1973–1976), head of special collections cataloging at the University of Texas at Austin (1970–1973), and in various professional capacities at Tulane from 1965 to 1969.

Robert H. Patterson

Patterson received his MLS from the University of California at Berkeley in 1965, and a master's degree in Latin American history from Tulane in 1963. He also attended the Institute on the Development and Administration of Programs for the Preservation of Library Materials at Columbia in the summer of 1978.

He now serves as chair of the ALA Resources and Technical Services Division's Education Committee and as president of the Western Conservation Congress. Patterson has also been vice chair of the Advisory Council to the Bibliographic Center for Research in Denver, and chair of the Wyoming Library Association's Intellectual Freedom Committee.

This month he is keynote speaker at the Allerton Institute at the University of Illinois Graduate School of Library and Information Science. Patterson is also editor and publisher of Conservation Administration News, for which he received a $2,000 Officer's Grant from the Council on Library Resources for editorial support in 1980–82.

Other publications include articles on preservation for the ALA Yearbook and Library Journal, and other professional articles for Colorado Libraries, the University of Texas at Austin's Library Chronicle, and the Journal of Inter-American Studies.

Patterson is also reader/panelist for the National Endowment for the Humanities, and a consultant on conservation of library materials and establishment of special museum libraries to Gallier House Museum, the Historic New Orleans Collection, and to Koch and Wilson, Architects.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

JEFFREY HEYEN has been appointed by the Association of Research Libraries to head a two-year program designed to improve bibliographic access to microform collections in American and Canadian libraries. ARL has received $20,000 from the Council on Library Resources to initiate the project, and additional funds are anticipated from other sources this fall. Heynen is currently president of Information Exchange Corporation and has served as chair of the ALA Resources and Technical Services Division's Reproduction of Library Materials Section. The ARL Microform Project is based upon a planning study conducted for the association by Richard Boss of Information Systems Consultants, Inc. Its purpose is to stimulate and coordinate the work of libraries, microform publishers, bibliographic utilities, and regional networks in providing bibliographic access to millions of monographic titles in microform which are now inadequately cataloged.

DAVID MORSE of the University of Southern California's Norris Medical Library has been re-elected chair of the Pharmacy and Drug Information Section of the Medical Library Association for 1981–82.

PAUL WASSERMAN of the University of Maryland College of Library and Information Services, has been appointed chairperson of the Advisory Committee in Librarianship and Information Science of the Council for the International Exchange of Scholars, effective September 1. The committee administers the Fulbright Scholarship and Lectureship Awards Program for the U.S. State Department.
