● Academic Libraries: The Changing Knowledge Centers of Colleges and Universities, by Barbara B. Moran (97 pages, 1984), has been published as no. 8 of the ASHE-ERIC Higher Education Research Report series. The report describes the current state of American academic libraries, and predicts some of the challenges from both internal and external factors that will shape the academic library of the future. Four areas are singled out as crucial: 1) the need for planning in the information age; 2) the role of faculty and librarians in planning; 3) the need for financial commitment to the library by the institution; and 4) the importance of supporting more cooperative library ventures. Copies of Moran's report may be obtained for $7.50 from the Association for the Study of Higher Education, Department PR-8, One Dupont Circle, Suite 630, Washington, DC 20036.

● Afro-American Studies, by Nathan I. Huggins

(96 pages, July 1985), is a survey, commissioned by the Ford Foundation, of the current status of Afro-American studies programs on American campuses in the light of the early experience and future needs of the field. Copies are available for $3.50 (pre-paid), plus $1 handling, from the Ford Foundation, P.O. Box 559, Naugatuck, CT 06770. ISBN 0-916584-25-9.

● Areas of Cooperation in Library Development in Asian and Pacific Regions, edited by Sally C. Tseng, Hwa-Wei Lee, and K. Mulliner (63 pages, 1985), consists of papers presented at the 1983 Joint Annual Program of the Asian/Pacific American Librarians Association and Chinese-American Librarians Association. Topics include the role of UNESCO in library cooperation, library internships, and the need for qualified personnel. Copies may be ordered for $10 ($5 to members of A/PALA and CALA), plus $1 postage and handling, from the Office of the Director, Ohio University Libraries, Athens, OH 45701-2978.

● Basic Electronics Technology, by Alvis J. Evans, Jerry D. Mullen, and Danny H. Smith, is an overview of the basic concepts and practical applications of electronic circuits and systems. It explains how semiconductors and circuits work as amplifiers, as oscillators, in power supplies, in audio systems, in AM/FM radio, in TV and other video systems, in microprocessors, and computers. The cost is $19.95. Contact Texas Instruments Inc., P.O. Box 225474, Dallas, TX 75265.

● Bibliography on Soviet Intelligence and Security Services, by Raymond G. Rocca and John J.

Ordering books shouldn't be a maddening experience.

Dealing with an inflexible book supplier is no tea party.

That's why so many librarians prefer to deal with Baker & Taylor. For over 150 years we've been listening carefully and responding with economical and customized methods to help librarians get the most from their budget.

We've developed time-saving, cost-effective programs like our Continuation Service, Book Leasing System and Approval Program. And our electronic ordering services like BaTaPHONE[®], BaTaSYSTEMS[™], and LIBRIS II[™] are state of the art. All have been developed with the help of professional librarians who understand the needs of today's libraries.

So whenever you have any questions about how to improve your book ordering services, ask Baker & Taylor.

You can expect some very straight answers. And that's no fairy tale.

Dziak (203 pages, 1985), is a qualitatively annotated list of books, articles, chapters, and documents on the KGB and other Soviet intelligence agencies. Of particular interest are chapters on Russian sources and writings by defectors and other eyewitnesses. An appendix supplies a historical flowchart of the relevant agencies. Copies may be ordered for $12.00 from the National Strategy Information Center, 150 E. 58th St., New York, NY 10155. ISBN 0-8133-7048-5.

• Blake and Swedenborg: Opposition Is True Friendship, edited by Harvey F. Bellin and Darrell Ruhl (157 pages, August 1985), is an anthology of essays that examine the inspiration for some of William Blake's poetry and art in the writings of Swedish theologian Emanuel Swedenborg. Well illustrated with Blake's illuminated poems, the book explores a little-known aspect of the great mystic. The cost is $8.95, available from the Swedenborg Foundation, 139 E. 23d St., New York, NY 10010. ISBN 0-87785-127-1.

• The Catalog of the Dan M. King Architecture Collection at the Library Learning Center, Kentucky Wesleyan College: A Guide, compiled by Richard Weiss (40 pages, 1985), describes the collection donated by the former Kentucky Wesleyan Library director. The guide lists short titles for nearly 400 monographs, which are arranged by subject. A copy may be requested from the Office

THE CLASSIFIED ADS

Deadlines: Orders for regular classified advertisements must reach the ACRL office on or before the second of the month preceding publication of the issue (e.g. September 2 for the October issue). Late job listings will be accepted on a space-available basis after the second of the month.

Rates: Classified advertisements are $5.00 per line for ACRL members, $6.25 for others. Late job notices are $12.00 per line for members, $14.00 for others. Organizations submitting ads will be charged according to their membership status.

Telephone: All telephone orders should be confirmed by a written order mailed to ACRL headquarters as soon as possible. Orders should be accompanied by a typewritten copy of the ad to be used in proofreading. An additional $10 will be charged for ads taken over the phone (except late job notices or display ads).

Guidelines: For ads which list an application deadline, that date must be no sooner than the 20th day of the month in which the notice appears (e.g., October 20 for the October issue). All job announcements should include a salary figure. Job announcements will be edited to exclude discriminatory references. Applicants should be aware that the terms faculty rank and status vary in meaning among institutions.

JOBLINE: Call (312) 944-6795 for late-breaking job ads for academic and research library positions. A pre-recorded summary of positions listed with the service is revised weekly; each Friday a new tape includes all ads received by 1:00 p.m. the previous day. Each listing submitted will be carried on the recording for two weeks. The charge for each two-week listing is $30 for ACRL members and $35 for non-members.

Fast Job Listing Service: A special newsletter for those actively seeking positions. This service lists job postings received at ACRL headquarters four weeks before they appear in C&RL News, as well as ads which, because of narrow deadlines, will not appear in C&RL News. The cost of a six-month subscription is $10 for ACRL members and $15 for non-members.

Contact: Classified Advertising Dept., ACRL, American Library Association, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611; (312) 944-6780.
