

ACRL Conference Highlights

NYU's Elmer Holmes Bobst Library (right and below) was the stunning setting of a Gala Open House for all ACRL members attending the New York Conference. The social highlight of the conference week, the elegant reception drew over two thousand guests.
