Acquisitions

•Texas A&M University, College Station, has acquired more than 700 Chinese-language volumes of literature, history, political science, art, travel, and science as a gift from the state education commission of China in honor of the university's commitment to attracting and educating Chinese students. This is the first extensive gift of foreign-language materials presented to the university's Sterling C. Evans Library.

•The University of British Columbia, Vancouver, has acquired the personal papers of B.C. author Jane Rule. The papers range from 1947 to 1984 and include notes, manuscripts, and correspondence relating to her published and unpublished novels and short stories; biographical and autobiographical material, college papers, teaching records, non-fiction manuscripts; and personal and professional correspondence. Rule has published many books including Desert of the Heart (1964), Contract with the World (1980), and Memory Board (1987).

•The University of California, Berkeley, has acquired the surviving papers of one of France's top scientists at the time of the French Revolution, Pierre Simon Laplace (1749–1827). The 25 boxes of scientific and personal papers are the literary remains of a devastating fire in 1925 at the Laplace
