

Graham R. Hill has received the first Canadian Association of Research Libraries (CARL) Distinguished Service to Research Librarianship Award, sponsored by Chadwyck-Healey. Hill was awarded the $1,000 prize for his longstanding commitment in the areas of copyright reform and education. Hill is university librarian at McMaster University in Hamilton, Ontario, where he has held this position since 1979. He has been a member of the Association of Colleges and Canada Copyright Advisory Group since 1991. In 1996, he wrote the CARL Brief on Bill C-32 (an act to amend the copyright act of Canada) for submission to the Canadian House of Commons Standing Committee on Canadian Heritage. Most recently, Hill has been responsible for drafting the Statement of Principles for the Management of Copyright in the Digital Environment (October 1998). This document is expected to shape copyright policy for CARL and other copyright user groups as they prepare for the next round of Canadian and international copyright reform.

Gary Wiggins, head of the Indiana University Chemistry Library since 1976, was the recipient of the 1998 Skolnik Award, given by the American Chemical Society Division of Chemical Information, for outstanding contributions in the practice of chemical information science.

Appointments

James Estrada has been named vice president of Information Resources and Services and university librarian at Fairfield University in Connecticut. Estrada is vice-chair/chair-elect of ACRL's University Libraries Section (ULS).

Ed. note: To ensure that your personnel news is considered for publication, write to Ann-Christe Young, Production Editor, C&RL News, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611-2795; e-mail: ayoung@ala.org; fax: 312-280-2520.

William A. Gosling

interim director of the university library at the University of Michigan (UM) since 1997, has been appointed director. As interim director, Gosling worked to strengthen collection development processes, expanded staff development and diversity initiatives, built the fundraising program, and worked with staff to expand and improve operations. He came to UM in 1986 as assistant director for technical services, following work at Duke University Library and the Library of Congress. Gosling is active in a number of library organizations, including the ALA, ACRL, Association of Research Libraries, Michigan Library Association, Committee on Institutional Cooperation, and the Digital Library Federation. He also serves on the editorial boards of the Journal of Academic Librarianship, Library Acquisitions: Practice and Theory, and the Journal of Internet Cataloging.

William A. Gosling

Tracey Leger-Hornby was named director of Regina Library at Rivier College in Nashua, New Hampshire. She was most recently associate director for Instructional Computing and User Services at Simmons College Libraries in Boston, where she worked for 11 years. Leger-Hornby previously served as assistant director for Library Systems, as well as library automation project manager at Simmons. She currently serves as secretary for the Board of Trustees of the New England Regional Affiliate of Educause, and chaired the New England Innovative Interfaces User's Group.

Glenda Thornton has been appointed director of the Cleveland State University Library. Prior to this position, Thornton served as the associate director for Library Services at the Auraria Library at the University of Colorado in Denver. Thornton's experience includes the overall administration of the Auraria Library and several years of implementing information technology systems including distance learning.

Trevor J. Bond has been appointed temporary manuscripts librarian at Washington State University in Pullman.

Kitty Bridges has been appointed coordinator of Science Libraries and head of the Shapiro Science Library at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

J. Paul Buchanan has been appointed vice president in charge of Information Technology at the Academic Book Center.

Laura G. Burtle is now assistant head for library instruction in the Information Services Department at Georgia State University in Atlanta.

Rod A. Bustos has been appointed systems librarian at Georgia State University in Atlanta.

Larry Compton has been appointed research librarian for the National Environmental Respiratory Center at the Lovelace Respiratory Research Institute in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Brian Doherty has been appointed head of the Music Library at Southwest Missouri State University.

Jean Farrington has been appointed special projects librarian at Lehigh University in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania.

Betty Galbraith is now collection development coordinator/public services librarian at Washington State University in Pullman.

Kimberly Graber has appointed reference librarian and user education coordinator in the Owen Science and Engineering Library at Washington State University in Pullman.

Doreen Harwood has been appointed reference/business librarian at the University of Washington in Seattle.

John P. Hughes has been appointed science liaison/reference librarian at Georgia State University in Atlanta.

Cheryl Jones is the new education librarian at Southwest Missouri State University.

Lee P. Keene has been appointed reference librarian at Whitman College in Walla Walla, Washington.

Allison Level is now the head of the Reference Department at Southwest Missouri State University Libraries.

Bonnie J. MacEwan has been appointed assistant dean for collections for Pennsylvania State University.

Alison Manning has been appointed social sciences reference/collection development librarian at Washington State University in Pullman.

J. Gregory Matthews has been appointed electronic resources cataloging librarian at Washington State University in Pullman.

Mary Miller has been appointed technology coordinator in the Reference Department at the University of Kansas Libraries.

Julia K. Nims has been appointed director of the LOEX Clearinghouse at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti.

J. B. Petty has been named coordinator of the Library Science Program and Library Development at Southwest Missouri State University.

Roger L. Presley has been appointed associate university librarian for Resource Management at Georgia State University in Atlanta.

Phyllis L. Ruscella has been appointed associate university librarian for Public Services at Georgia State University in Atlanta.

Barton Spencer is now library development officer at the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg.

William Spivey is now coordinator of Education and Outreach Services at the New York Academy of Medicine Library.

Joan M. Stephens has been appointed head of the Acquisitions Department at Georgia State University in Atlanta.

Tammy S. Sugarman has been appointed humanities liaison/reference librarian at Georgia State University in Atlanta.

Cordelia Swinton has been appointed head of access services for Pennsylvania State University.

Ann Thornton has been appointed assistant director for electronic resources at the New York Public Library Science, Industry and Business Library.

Marie Tomlinson has been appointed information specialist to the Center for Urban Epidemiologic Studies at the New York Academy of Medicine Library.

Stephen Trumble is now social sciences reference/collection development librarian at Washington State University in Pullman.

Scott Walter has been appointed humanities and education reference librarian at the University of Missouri, Kansas City.

Brian Webb has been appointed social sciences reference librarian at Troy State University in Troy, Alabama.

David K. Weeks has been appointed reference librarian/coordinator of document delivery at Winthrop University in Rock Hill, South Carolina.

Stefanie A. Wittenbach has been appointed head of the acquisitions department at the University of California, Riverside.

Susan Yarborough has been appointed education reference librarian at Troy State University in Troy, Alabama.

Gail Yokote has been appointed assistant university librarian for the sciences at the University of California, Davis.

has announced her plans to retire in June 1999 after 35 years of library service. Before joining EKU, she held positions as head of circulation at the Warren Library Association; chair of the Library Program Department at Miami-Dade Community College; and associate dean of libraries for Administration Services at the University of Tennessee. Myers also served as chair of ACRL's Community and Junior College Libraries Section, was a member of the RASD Board, and the Library Research Round Table Steering Committee. She is best known for her work on the effectiveness of reference services.

Marcia J. Myers

Retirements

Dorothy E. Davis has retired after 46 years of service to Southern University and A&M College in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. She joined the Southern Library staff in September 1952 as an instructor. Davis has served in various capacities in the library: assistant cataloger, film librarian, 1952-55; assistant circulation librarian, 1955-60; assistant reference librarian, 1960-64; circulation librarian, 1964-68; black heritage librarian and university archivist, 1968-84; reference librarian, 1984-86; art and architecture librarian/reference librarian, 1986-98. She has made many contributions in Black Studies, including the proposal for and organization of the core Black Heritage Collection at Southern.

Kathryn Johnson has retired from Southern University and A&M College in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, after 28 years of service. Johnson began her career at Southern as a cataloger. She then served as head of serials, head of circulation, and bindery/catalog librarian. In 1982, she was named acquisitions librarian, a position she held until 1986, when she was named collection development librarian. In 1987, Johnson became a reference librarian, and in 1992, her title was changed to head of reference and team leader. She has served on the University Academic Honors standing committee since 1982.

Marcia J. Myers, director of libraries at Eastern Kentucky University (EKU) in Richmond,

Ann Baker Ward retired from the North Carolina State (NSU) University Libraries after more than 30 years of service. She began her career at NSU in 1970 as a librarian in the Interlibrary Center, became humanities reference librarian in 1973, and returned to the Interlibrary Center as its head in 1985. She retired as the library's principal bibliographer in October 1998. ■

Advertiser index

AIAA	16
Ameritech	Cover 4
Archival Products	35
Association of Research Libraries	27
ATLA	36
Baker & Taylor	33
Blackwell's Information Svcs.	13
Chadwyck-Healey	39
CHOICE	7, 43
East View Press	30
EBSCO	43a
Gordon & Breach Arts	23
Graphics Press	1
Greenwood Publishing	24
Haworth Press	29
Information Quest	8
ISI	25, Cover 2
Northern Micrographics	4
OCLC	19
Primary Source Media	Cover 3
R. R. Bowker	21

ChoiceReviews.online

It's not just reviews, it's a

R eviewing
evolution!

ChoiceReviews.online provides Web access to the entire database of CHOICE reviews since September 1988. Users can search for reviews by various criteria, including key word, title, subject, author, date, and readership level.

But it's more than just a database of reviews!

ChoiceReviews.online notifies users of new reviews before they appear in print. And its powerful list management function allows creation of customized groups of reviews. ChoiceReviews.online is a reviewing service that brings users the information they need, when they need it.

Subscribe to ChoiceReviews.online for just $395 per year. Current magazine subscribers can receive credit adjustments for conversion to the ChoiceReviews.online service. Call 860/347-6933 x33 or contact CHOICE at subscriptions@ala-choice.org for details.

Demonstrations at ALA Midwinter

BOOTH 2134

It's got the academic library world abuzz.

EBSCO Online[®], the new electronic serials management tool from EBSCO Subscription Services, is creating quite a buzz in academic libraries. From its easy-to-use administrative features to its intuitive search options, EBSCO Online is redefining the way people think of electronic journal access and management.

Administrators can even select certain journals for certain people. How's that for bee-ing flexible?

EBSCO Online. It's a honey.

All the subscription formats you need and want from a name you already know and trust.

(205) 991-6600 • Fax (205) 995-1636 • <http://www.ebsco.com>
P.O. Box 1943 • Birmingham, AL 35201-1943

EBSCO
SUBSCRIPTION SERVICES

*A part of the EBSCO
Information Services group.*

EBSCO Subscription Services is Year 2000 Compliant!